2024 SUMMER CAMPS

Piano Camp

June 9–15, 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Ages: 12+ through adult

Fee: $600 (Resident)/$375 (Commuter)

Over the course of six days, intermediate to advanced students will participate in activities including masterclasses, private lessons, pedagogical presentations, collaborative piano, faculty and student recitals, and competition opportunities. Lots of individual one-on-one instruction as well as collaborative opportunities. This year's focus will be on careers in music and successful preparation for gigs.

Register as a commuter or as a resident, if you wish to stay overnight. Registration deadline is May 31, 2024.

Jazz Band Camp

June 9–15, 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Ages: Junior high and high school students (12+)

Fee: $550 (Resident)/$350 (Commuter)

This camp is designed for students to develop individual musicianship and sight-reading skills through combo and big band settings. This year's focus will be on careers in music and successful preparation for gigs. Campers will also enjoy listening to historically significant albums led by influential artists. Students will be assigned to a combo by a placement audition at the beginning of camp. The ensembles will perform in a concert on the final day of camp.

Register as a commuter or as a resident, if you wish to stay overnight. Registration deadline is May 31, 2024.

Film Camp

June 9–15, 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Ages: 14+

Fee: $550 (Resident)/$350 (Commuter)

Over this seven-day camp, students will write, shoot, edit and premiere a short film. Students will have access to professional film gear, such as the Black Magic Cinema 4K cine camera, Small Rig lighting, Holly Land transmitters and Rode microphones, and utilize Adobe software to edit, color-correct and color-grade their film. Once completed, the film will be premiered on the final camp day. This is a fast-paced, intensive camp full of creativity and hands-on learning.

Register as a commuter or as a resident, if you wish to stay overnight. Registration deadline is May 31, 2024.
